CLEVER WOMAN'S STRATEGY

MRS. M'GUIRE'S QUICK WIT CAPTURED FIRST 46TH STAR FLAG

UNDER THE VERY EYES OF OPPOSING INFLUENCE

Furnishes Dramatic Setting for Revised Version of "Barbara Frietsch"

Special to Daily Leader.

Washington, March 4.—With a society woman furnishing a part for the melodramatic settings, a politician doing the "heavy" and congress—calm, sedate congress, whose members frowned upon anything more dramatic than first fights between its members—sitting quietly by and sucking its pink thumb, a playlet was given in Washington in which the new American flag—the first to contain the forty-sixth star—was the center piece.

Both Congressmen McGuire and Ferris were seeking position of the flag, which floated over the national capitol for the first time Monday. Ferris introduced a resolution giving the flag to the Oklahoma Historical society. In the meantime, McGuire secured possession of the flag and sent it to Perry, Okla., to be used in the republican convention, notwithstanding the fact that only a few months ago, republicans throughout Oklahoma fought against the adoption of Oklahoma as a state. Mrs. McGuire is said to have played a part in the game.

The Ferris resolution was passed and by unanimous consent, the flag was donated to the historical society, but in the meantime, the flag was speeding Perryward.

Congressman Ferris now threatens to repossess the flag. A flag is flying over the senate wing of the national house today. It has 46 stars, but Ferris and his friends refuse to accept it as a substitute for the first flag.

WANT EXTRA CARS.

Many of the commercial travelers in and out of Guthrie are agitating the issue of raising petition as a commercial association which they will present to the railroad asking them to establish an extra car on through trains which is to be fitted up better than the average car. For this the drummer will pay for his seat extra, besides his regular fare. This ought to be a paying proposition on all through trains in Oklahoma, as many excursionists would be willing to pay extra for a seat and yet do not feel able to take a Pullman.
